ACT 2:

Sacrifice of Messiah &
Forgiveness of Sins

LET'S BEGIN!

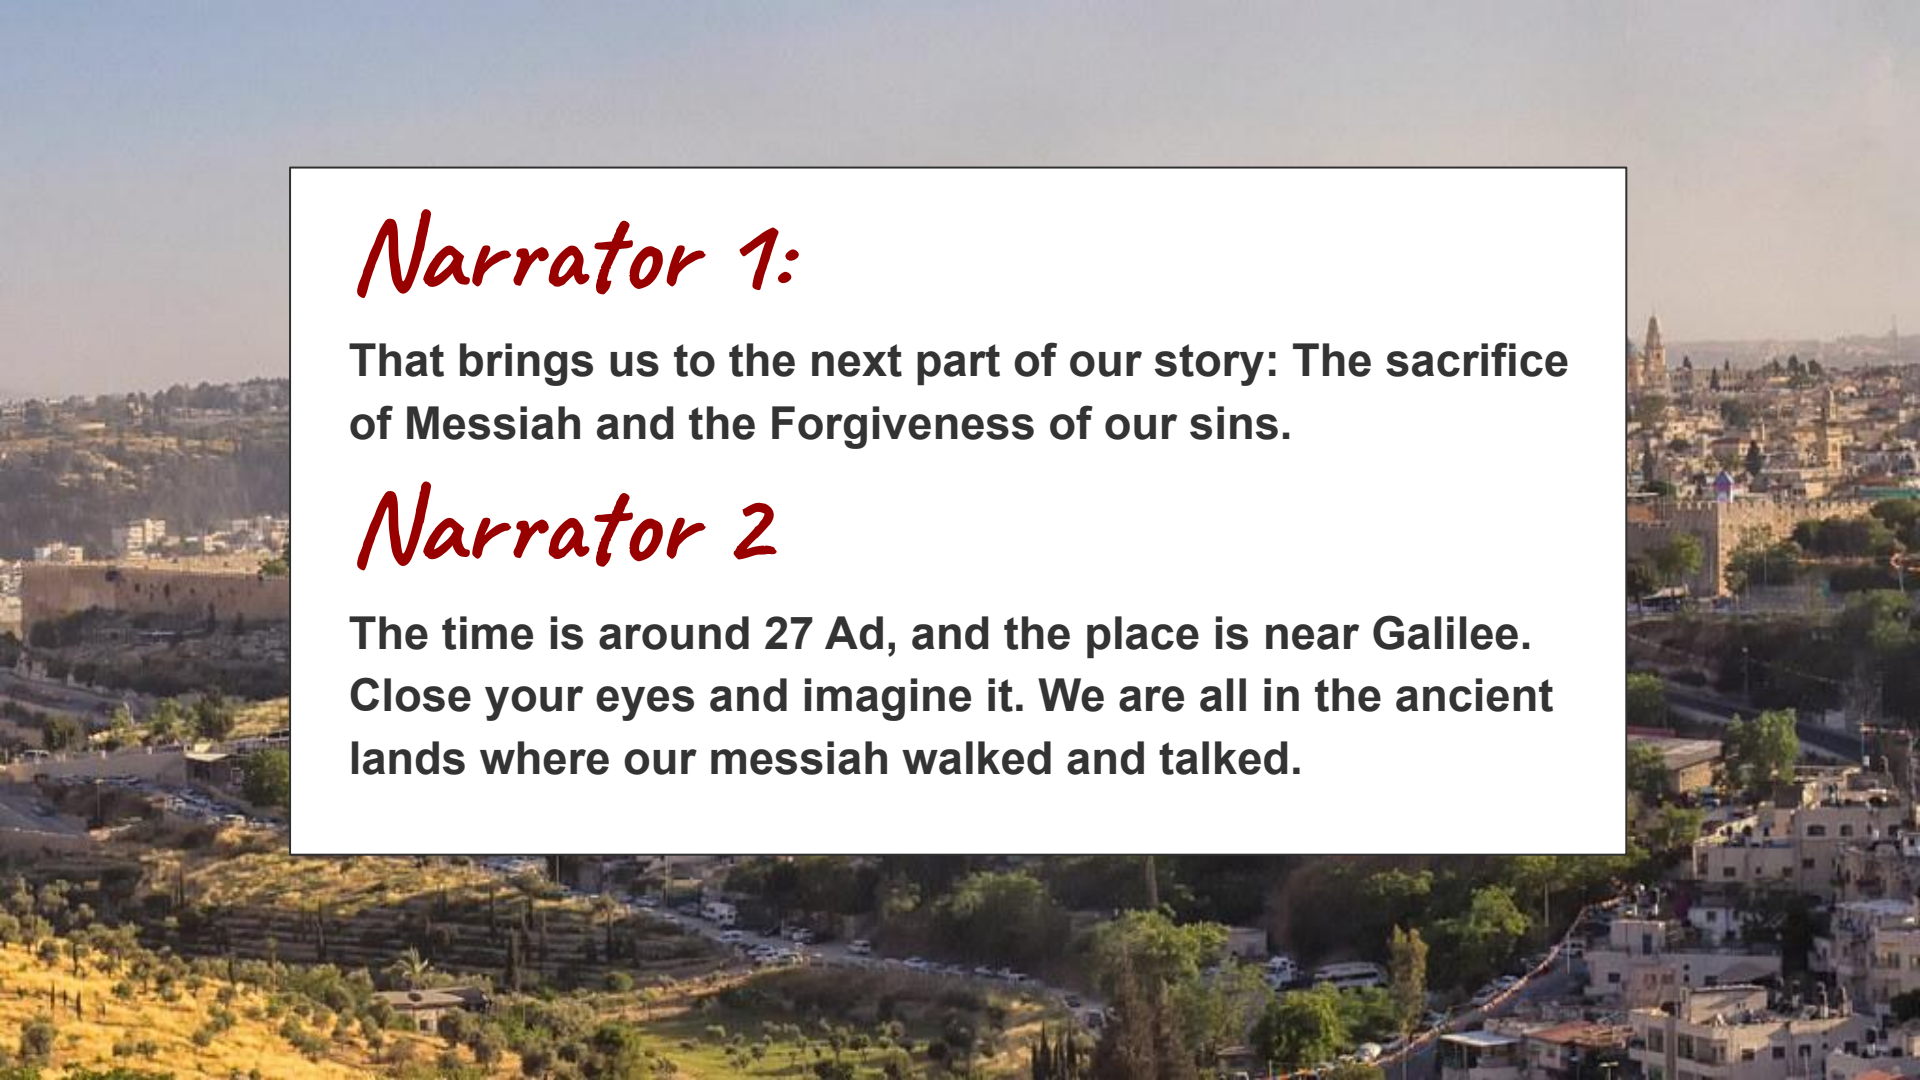

Narrator 2:

In Act One last week, we learned how Yahuah led the Hebrews out of Egypt and later commanded them to honor the Appointed Time of Unleavened Bread every year to remember how He protected them from his judgement on the Egyptians and set them free from their captivity.

Narrator 3:

Right, the feast of Unleavened Bread starts on the fourteenth day of the Hebrew month Nissan at sunset. It lasts 7 days, and it's a great time to reflect on the Messiah's sacrifice for us.

An aerial photograph of Jerusalem, showing the Old City walls and surrounding hills. The image is used as a background for the text overlay.

Narrator 1:

That brings us to the next part of our story: The sacrifice of Messiah and the Forgiveness of our sins.

Narrator 2

The time is around 27 Ad, and the place is near Galilee. Close your eyes and imagine it. We are all in the ancient lands where our messiah walked and talked.

Narrator 3:

Large crowds were following The Messiah, as he was healing the sick. Parents with small children were also following him, hoping The Messiah would bless them.

Crowd (Everyone):

Yahusha! It's him! It's really him!

Malachai:

Mom! Dad! The Messiah is here! Please take me to see Yahusha.

Judah:

I want to go, too. See there he is, walking around with his disciples

Ruth:

Can I go too Mama? He's right over there!

Mary:

Don't forget me!

Mother:

Okay children, we will take you to see Yahusha.

Narrator 1:

Ruth & Mary's Mom and the other parents brought their children to Yahusha so he could lay his hands on them and pray for them.

Father:

Yahusha, meet my sons Malachai and Judah. Mal's 12 and Judah's 7.

Mother:

Messiah, I'd love for you to meet and bless my children Ruth and Mary

Malachai:

Hello!

Ruth:

You're Yahusha right? The Messiah?

Judah:

I'm so excited to meet you!

Mary:

We were wondering if you could play with us and share some of your wisdom!

Crowd (Everyone):

Yahusha, we would like you to meet our family too.

Apostle Andrew:

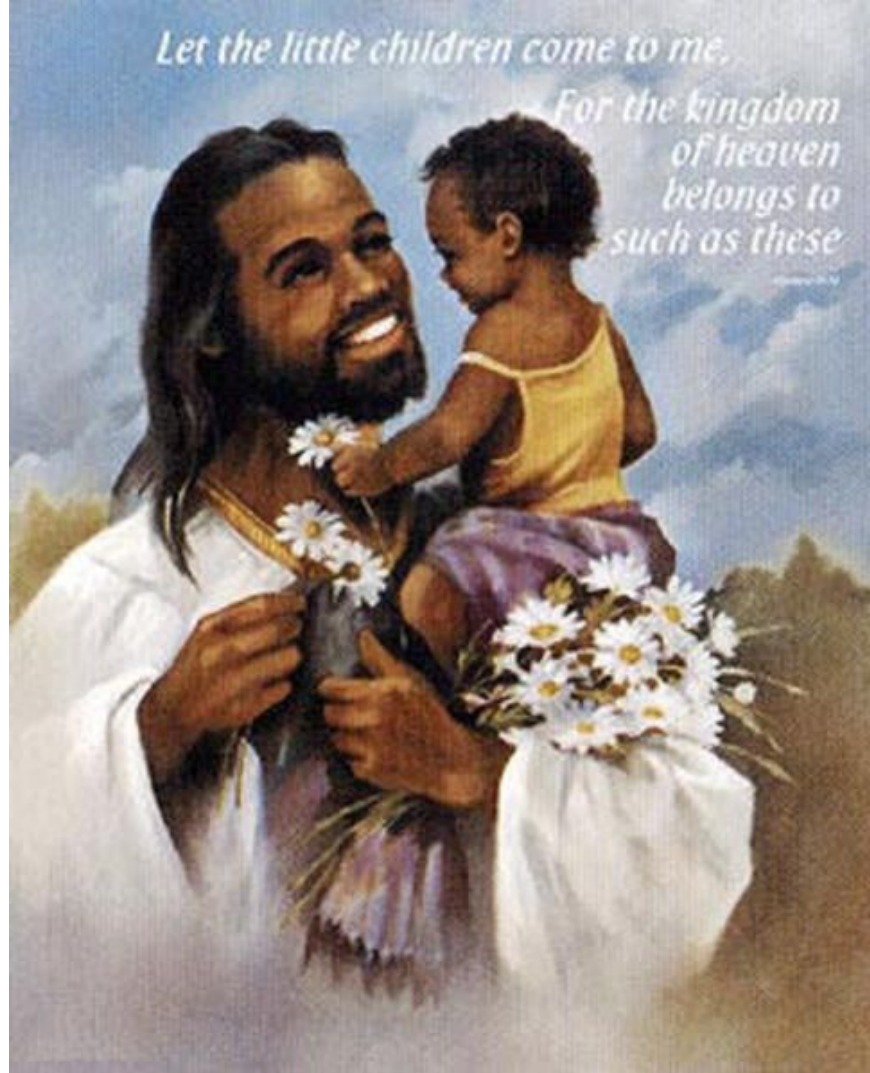

No, no NO!

Apostle Simon:

Stand down now! This is no place for children.

Apostle Thomas:

You must not disturb the great Messiah! Run along! All of you!

Narrator 2:

The disciples started to scold any parent trying to bring their child to meet The Messiah, insisting that he not be bothered.

Narrator 1:

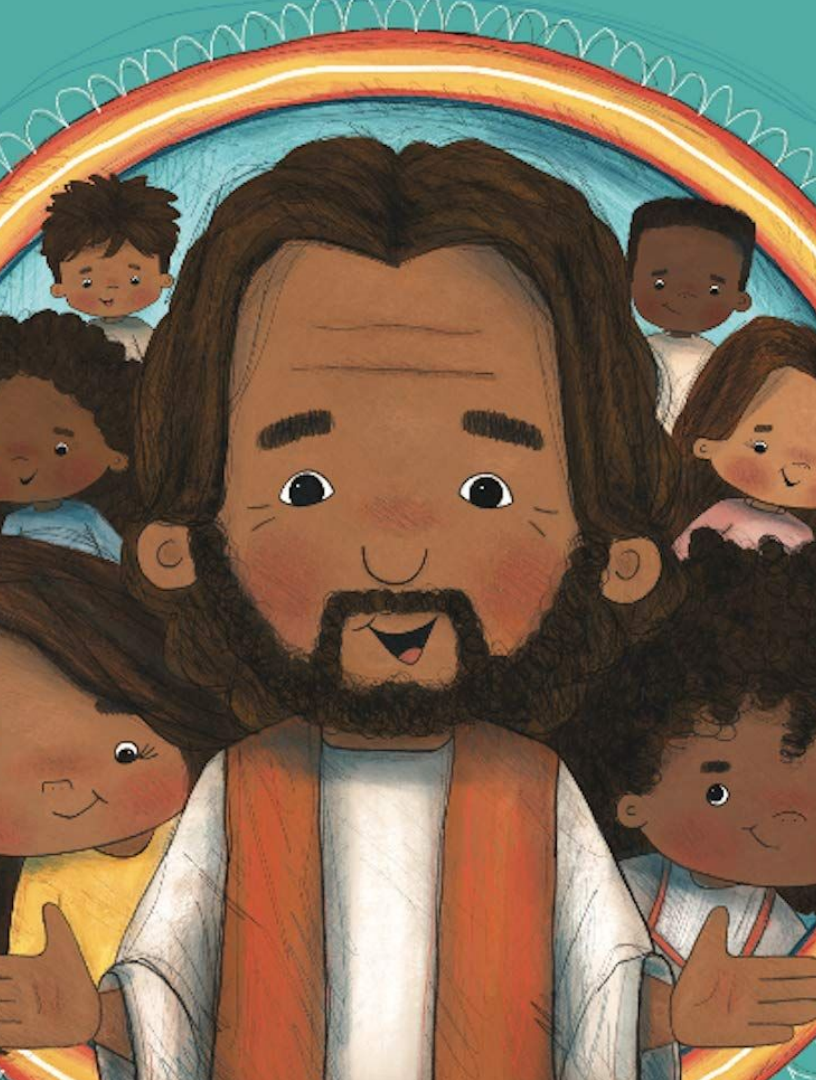

That's when Yahushua silenced the disciples

Yahusha:

Let the children come to me. Don't stop them! For the kingdom of heaven belongs to those who are like these children.

Narrator 3:

And Yahusha then hugged each child and placed his hands on each child as well to bless them.

Yahusha:

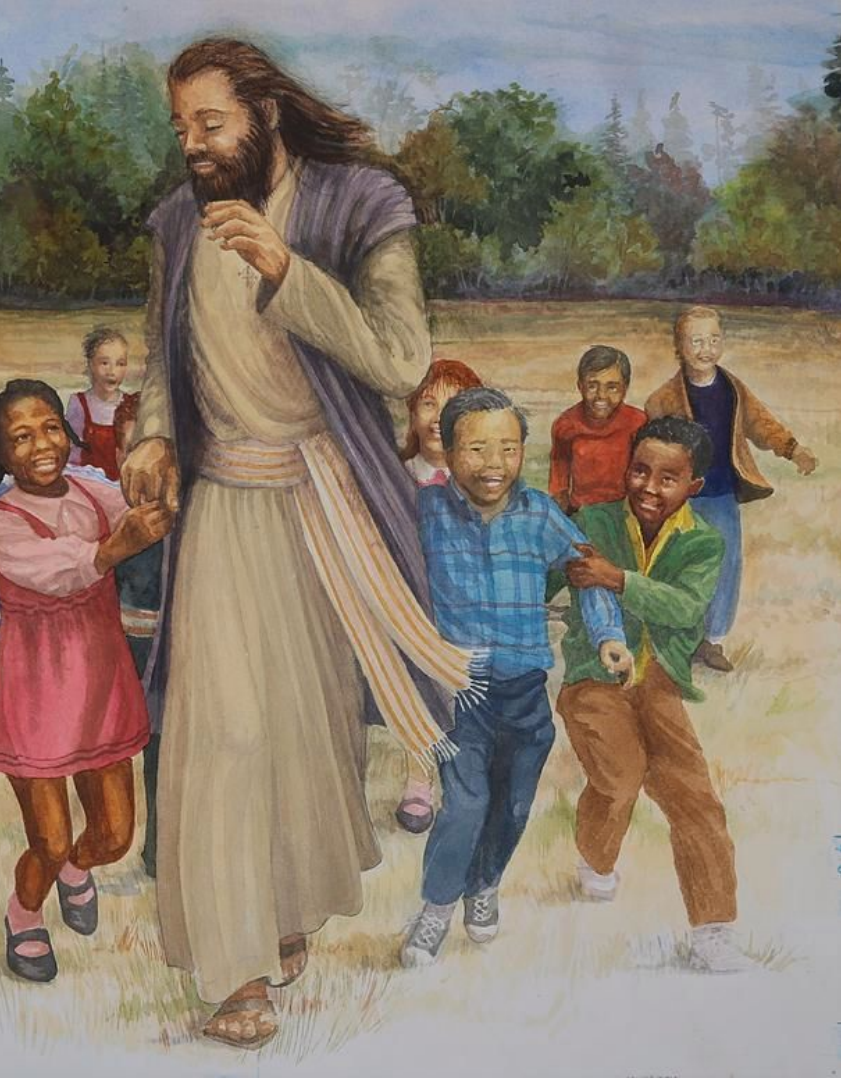

I tell you the truth, Anyone who does not receive the Kingdom of Elohim like a child will never enter it.

Narrator 1:

Luke 10:21 tells us that Yahusha was filled with the joy of the Ruach and began to pray to his father.

Yahusha:

O Father, Yahuah of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever, and for revealing them to the childlike. Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way.

Malachai:

Bye Yahusha!

Ruth:

I hope we see you soon!

Judah:

It was so much fun meeting you!

Mary:

This was wonderful, thank you so much for blessing me Yahusha!

CASTING CALL #2

 Shofar Blowers	Janiyah, Timothy
 Yahusha
 Apostle Andrew
 Apostle Thomas	Daius
 Crowd	Everyone

Narrator 1:

Narrator 1:

We left off in Part 1 when Yahusha was filled with the joy of the Ruach at the faith of the small children. Now it's Passover Time, and The Nessiah us on his way to Jerusalem.

Narrator 2:

Many in the crowd had seen Yahusha raise Lazarus from the dead, and that is why so many went out to meet him, because they had heard about his miraculous sign.

Narrator 3:

Yahusha found a young donkey and rode it, fulfilling his prophecy.

Crowd (Everyone):

Blessings on the one who comes in the name of Yahuah! Hail to the king of Israel!

(Shofar Blowers... blow the shofar!)

Narrator 1:

Yahshua's disciples did not understand at the time that this was a fulfillment of prophecy. But after Yahusha is no longer with them, they will remember that he rode a donkey and that is was foretold in Torah

Narrator 2:

What do you mean when you say “after Yahusha is no longer with them”? He’s leaving his disciples?

Narrator 3:

Yes, he is and he is about to break the news to his disciples now that he must leave, and it's going to be very difficult for them to understand.

Yahusha:

I want each of you to know that I truly love you, but where I am going now you cannot follow me.

Apostle Andrew:

Wait, what do you mean we cannot follow?

Yahusha:

Now the time has come for the Son of Man to enter into his glory. I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat is planted in the soil and dies, it remains alone. But its death will produce many new kernels—a plentiful harvest of new lives.

Yahusha
IS THE light
OF THE WORLD.

—JOHN 8:12

Apostle Thomas:

We want to go everywhere you go! That was our agreement, and I keep my promises!

Crowd (Everyone):

We saw in Scripture that The Messiah will live forever. How can you say the son of man will die?

Yahusha:

My light will shine for you just a little longer. Walk in the light while you can, so the darkness will not overtake you. Those who walk in the darkness cannot see where they are going. Put your trust in the light while there is still time, then you will become children of the light.

Narrator 1:

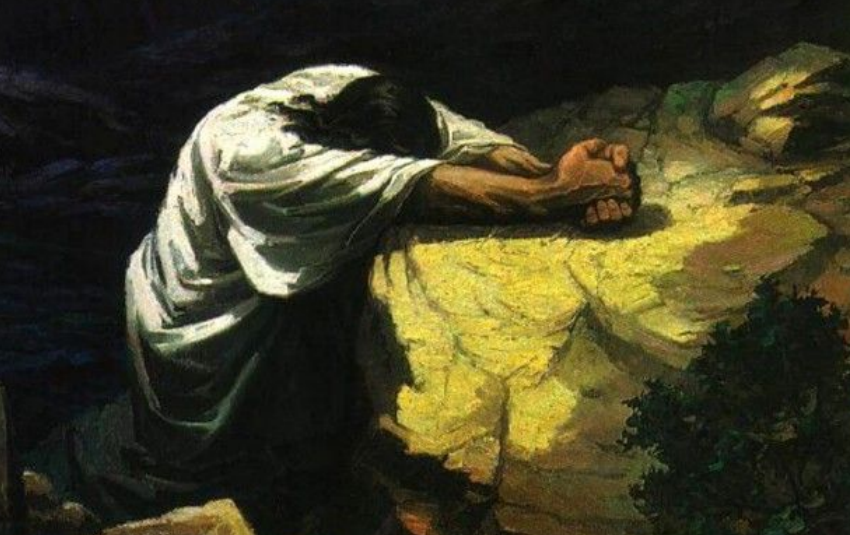

Despite all the miraculous signs Yahusha had done, most of the people still did not believe in him. This is exactly what Isaiah the prophet had predicted.

Narrator 2:

John 13 tells us that before the Passover celebration, Yahusha knew that his hour had come to leave this world and return to his Father.

Narrator 3:

It was time for supper, and the devil had already prompted Judas, son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Yahusha. Yahusha knew that the Father had given him authority over everything and that he had come from His heavenly Father above and would return to His Father.

Narrator 1:

That's when Yahusha washed the disciples feet

Yahusha:

My loved ones, do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in Yahuah, and trust also in Me. There is more than enough room in my Father's home. If this were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? When everything is ready, I will come and get you, so that you will always be with me where I am.

Narrator 2:

Yahusha also promised to send his Ruach Ha'kodesh in His absence.

Ruach Ha Kodesh

Yahusha:

It is best for you that I go away, because if I don't, the Ruach will not come. If I do go away, then I will send the Ruach to you. And when he comes, he will convict the world of its sin, and of Yahuah's righteousness, and of the coming judgment. The world's sin is that it refuses to believe in me. Righteousness is available because I go to the Father, and you will see me no more.

Narrator 1:

The disciples hung on his every word

OWYƎZ

PASSOVER

Behold The

LAMB

HONOR OUR LAMB'S SACRIFICIAL OFFERING

Yahusha:

In a little while you won't see me anymore. But a little while after that, you will see me again. I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world!

Crowd (Everyone):

Yahusha has overcome the world!

(Shofar Blowers... blow the shofar!)

Yahusha:

After 3 days I will rise from the dead.

Narrator 2:

What The Messiah said came to pass. He died for our sins and became the passover lamb. He indeed rose again after 3 days and eventually went back to heaven with his father Yahuah.

Narrator 3:

Why exactly is he called the “passover lamb”?

Narrator 1:

Before Yahusha died for our sins, the Israelites had to sacrifice lambs because of their sins. And it represented Yahusha having to die for our sins. So when he died, he became our passover lamb. That is one of the reasons that we celebrate Passover today! We also remember how he passed over the Israelites in Egypt and freed them from bondage.

Narrator 2:

1 Peter 1:18-20 tells us, “For you know that Elohim paid a ransom to save you from the empty life you inherited from your ancestors. And it was not paid with mere gold or silver, which lose their value. It was the precious blood of Messiah, as a lamb unblemished and spotless, foreknown, indeed, before the foundations of the world, but manifested in these last times for your sakes.

Narrator 3:

We are all born into sin and we need Yahusha as our passover lamb to make us righteous before Yahuah.

Narrator 1:

1 Corinthians 5:7 says, “Therefore cleanse out the old leaven, so that you are a new lump, as you are unleavened. For also Messiah our Passover was slaughtered for us.”

Narrator 1:

And verse 8 of that passage says, “So then let us celebrate the festival, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of evil and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.”

Narrator 1:

As Revelations 5:12 says, “Worthy is the lamb who is slain.”

Crowd (Everyone):

Worthy is the lamb!

(Shofar Blowers... blow the shofar!)

Worthy

IS THE LAMB

Narrator 3:

Yahusha is our Passover Lamb, and He continues to be our salvation. When we are in judgment, we will be passed over from judgment of eternal death because of His shed blood, our faith in Him.

Narrator 1:

In Isaiah 53:7-8, the prophet Isaiah says, “He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; he was led like a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By oppression and judgment he was taken away. And who can speak of his descendants? For he was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people he was stricken.

Narrator 2:

This “lamb” of Isaiah 53 is the one who bears the “transgression of my people”

Narrator 3:

Hebrews 9:11-15 reminds us that Yahusha’s blood can cleanse us of our righteousness, that we no longer have to sacrifice goats or any animal to atone for our sins. For by the power of the Ruach, Yahusha offered Himself to Elohim as the perfect sacrifice for our sins.

Narrator 1:

Yes, He mediates a new covenant between Yahuah and us, so that all who are called can receive the eternal inheritance Elohim has promised them, to bring us to the promised land.

Narrator 1:

For Yahusha died to set us free from the penalty of the sins committed under the first covenant.

Narrator 2:

And last but not least, John 3:16 tells us that Elohim so loved the world that He gave His only brought-forth Son, so that everyone who believes in Him should not perish but possess everlasting life. For Elohim did not send His Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

Crowd (Everyone)
